

Intensive English Program Sponsor Form

If you are an international student who will get an F-1 visa, you must show bank documents that show you can pay living and studying costs in the U.S. The bank document can be in your name OR the name of the person who will pay for your costs (your sponsor). Your bank document should be a letter. The bank letter should:

- Be in English or have English translation attached
- Be on official bank stationery with the address, phone number of the bank branch
- Be signed AND stamped by bank officials
- Have your name or your sponsor's name, the account number, and account open date
- Say the type of account (You CANNOT use investment accounts, mutual funds, etc.)
- Be recent (no more than 6 months old)
- Show the currency (Dollar, Peso, Riyal, Franc, etc)
- Show at least $24,500 to cover your costs (add $4500 if you will bring your husband/wife, add $2500 for each child that will you come with you)

Please complete the form:

Student name: _____
Date of Birth (Month/Day/Year) _____	<input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female
Country of Birth: _____	Country of citizenship: _____
I will come:
<input type="checkbox"/> Alone
<input type="checkbox"/> With a husband/wife and/or children (please send a list of who will come with you with their birthday, country of citizenship, and passport copy)
Who will be pay your study/living costs in the U.S.? _____ (Sponsor)
For sponsor: I have read the information about the costs of full-time study at the Intensive English Program at Georgia State University. I currently have the funds to pay and I agree to pay the costs of studying and living in the U.S. for this student. I accept full responsibility for the costs of 9 months of full-time language study.
Sponsor name: _____	Relationship to student: _____
City/Country: _____	E-mail: _____
Ink signature: _____	Date: _____

After you complete your application, send a copy of your passport information page, bank documents, and this form to esl@gsu.edu OR to: Intensive English Program at Georgia State University

25 Park Place, Suit 1500
Atlanta, GA 30303 USA